EC NEWS

EC EQUIPPING CLASS: THE REFORMATION

Speaker: DR ANDREW PEH (TRINITY THEOLOGICAL COLLEGE)
12 Aug | 2:15 - 3:45pm | Rooms 407/408
 The Lutheran Reformation initiated a wave of reformations throughout Europe and seeded the rise of Protestantism, leading to a departure from the Roman Catholic Church and her practices. What were the reasons for the departure and how did this impact Christendom? Come and learn more about our rich heritage + the major characters behind the Reformation movements.

HYPERGRACE: A DIFFERENT GOSPEL

Speaker: DR ROLAND CHIA
7 Sep (Fri) | 7:30-10pm | Sanctuary

The sixteenth century Protestant Reformation recovered an important biblical truth, namely, that salvation is possible only by the grace of God (sola gratia). In recent years, some preachers and teachers maintain that the Reformers' understanding of grace is not radical enough. These hypergrace teachers therefore speak of a new grace reformation that seeks to correct some of the defective aspects of the Reformers' understanding of grace. In this talk, we will examine what these hypergrace teachers have to say about:

- Scripture, especially the significance of the OT for Christians
- God's moral law
- sin and repentance
- the finished work of Christ on the cross
