FAMILY MINISTRY MAY MONTHLY PRAYER HIGHLIGHTS

1. Thank God for the unconditional love from parents and grandparents to our children. Pray for those families coming together to attend our Parent's Day Dinner (10 May) will have good sharing, a good testimony and fun time for celebrating the effort of the parents to the families.

2. May God bless those who will attend "How to Manage Your Emotions" seminar (8 June, 10:15-11:15am) with a humble heart to learn, and consistency to practise what they learn in their daily life. Pray that God will use the seminar to bring about life-changing effect through the Holy Spirit. Pray for the Holy Spirit anointing the speaker Rev Dr Danny Goh and interpreter Rev Joseph Hiow to share God's will in the message.

3. May our Lord give our parents strong faith, and cups filled with overflowing blessings, that they can be role models of the children, guiding them to walk in the right way that pleases God.

Topic: Spiritual Legacy

What can be achieved in 29 years of life?

In the span of 29 years, many of us may find ourselves building a career, raising a family, exploring the world, honing new skills, or serving our communities.

Rev Ng Eng Kiat has made good use of his time, energy and given resources building a church, planting the love of Christ to the hearts of the people he has been serving, travelling to various villages to nurture lives. He and his family have left a spiritual legacy in Central Thailand. The disciples and local leaders he has mentored are now continuing the work of the gospel, a testament to the seeds of faith he has faithfully planted.

Join us for an inspiring afternoon as we hear from Rev Ng, and be encouraged by his testimony of God's grace and faithfulness through the years.
