FAITH AND FLUENCY IN A FLEETING WORLD (English with no interpretation)

Time: 8:00 pm – 9:30 pm Singapore Time

What happens when a community receives the Bible, but can't read a single word of it? For many minority language groups in South Asia, a finished translation is only the beginning. Join us as we explore how to bridge the literacy gap and unlock the life-giving truth within Scripture. Discover how teaching a community to read their own mother tongue doesn't just improve literacy—it transforms lives and opens hearts to the claims of Christ.

Who's it for: Language lovers, literacy advocates, and the mission-minded.

Family Ministry

Monthly Prayer Highlights – May

1. We give thanks for the dedication and sacrifice of all the parents to their families. As our congregations celebrate the special occasion for the parents this month, may God strengthen the bonds between our children and their parents. May we be encouraged in the spirit as we reflect upon the love we received from our parents.
2. May God give us listening ears and patience when our spouses share the challenges and difficulties they face at the workplace. Pray that God will show us how to respond to His calling for us in the workplace. “The Lord is my light and my salvation – whom shall I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life – of whom shall I be afraid?” (Psalm 27:1)
3. Pray for the elderly in our midst, who feel lonely and broken-hearted. May God help us to learn to reach out to them. May God bless them with good relationships and community, and through His love they will find friendship and healing.
