CROSSGENERATION CONNECT (CGC)

7 June (Sun) | 2pm | Rooms 407-408

The journey of faith is never smooth sailing, for each Christian must wrestle alone with doubts, temptations, and trials. Yet God has designed the church so that fellow believers play a vital part in this pilgrimage. We are called to journey together, and in doing so, we offer mutual encouragement and edification, which not only strengthens our faith but also pleases God, who delights in His people walking in unity and love.

What is weighing you down spiritually? Anything holding you back from trusting God? Are you confused, in doubt, or feeling overwhelmed? Come and pose your questions, share your thoughts, and learn from one another with the counsel of Scripture.

SERMON NOTES

GIVE ME THIS HILL COUNTRY!

Scripture: Joshua 14:10-12 (ESV) • Speaker: Ps Teo Kah Hong

Reflection Questions:

1. Have I been trusting and encountering the Lord, following Him wholeheartedly, even through difficult times?
2. Am I still faithfully serving the Lord today? What is the one “hill country” I am asking the Lord for today?

Rev Chua Yeow San
